INSTRUCTIONS OTHER RESEARCH METHODS – ZUB

Dear B_BC20-students,

as the goal of the lectures is, next to preparing you for writing your research proposal, that you become familiar with scientific thinking, have fun with your research and get to know the variety of research methods and possibilities, this ZUB-Video introduces you to other forms of research that can be referred to / used 😊 These might not be that common and you might not have heard about these yet. We tried to summarize the most prominent ones and quickly introduce them to you within a very short videoclip, which can be found on edunet, to make it more fun!

Please watch this video and participate in the short quiz implemented within the video as a self-examination. At certain moments, the video will stop and a question will pop up. Some are multiple choice questions, some are single choice questions and some are true/false questions. You need to answer each question in order to be able to proceed with watching the video.
